

To Reduce the Odds of Injures and Accidents, Raise Workers' Awareness of Safe Practices...

1. Develop and implement a Safety Policy that stresses your commitment to protect employees from injuries and illnesses.
2. Establish and enforce an Injury Prevention Plan based on your Safety Policy.
3. Recognize and reward all employees--from supervisors to support staff--for following safety procedures. Model proper behavior. Discourage shortcuts.
4. Establish and measure safety goals on a regular basis. Hold managers accountable for meeting the goals.
