Heat Illness Prevention

(PRESENTED IN ENGLISH)

Course Description

Heat illness continues to be a serious concern for businesses that have employees working in environments with high air temperatures, radiant heat sources, high humidity and strenuous physical activities. Heat-related illnesses can cause serious health problems and, in some cases, lead to death.

This course will address the following important topics:

- Heat illness risk factors
- Elements of a heat illness prevention problem including water, shade, written procedures and training
- Signs and symptoms of heat illness
- Importance of acclimatization
- Supervisor role and responsibility in heat illness prevention
- How to respond to symptoms
- Procedures for contacting emergency medical services
- Review of employee and supervisor training requirements
