Note 1. Basis of Presentation

Zenith National Insurance Corp. ("Zenith National") is a Delaware holding company, which is a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of Fairfax Financial Holdings Limited ("Fairfax"). Fairfax is a Canadian financial services holding company, whose common stock is publicly traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange, and is principally engaged in property and casualty insurance, reinsurance and associated investment management. Zenith National's wholly-owned subsidiaries (primarily Zenith Insurance Company ("Zenith Insurance")), specialize in the workers' compensation insurance business, nationally and, since 2010, in the property-casualty business for California agriculture. Unless otherwise indicated, all references to the "Company" refer to Zenith National together with its subsidiaries.

The accompanying unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") for interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (including normal, recurring adjustments) necessary for a fair presentation of the Company's financial position and results of operations for the periods presented have been included. The results of operations for an interim period are not necessarily indicative of the results for an entire year. For further information, refer to the Audited Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes thereto of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2015.

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements differ from the financial information published by Fairfax in regards to the Company primarily due to differences between GAAP and International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS," the reporting basis used by Fairfax), intercompany investment transactions and accounting adjustments recorded by Fairfax related to the acquisition of the Company.

Reclassifications

Certain prior year amounts in the accompanying consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated subsequent events through the date and time that the Consolidated Financial Statements were issued on May 2, 2016.

Note 2. Investments

As of March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, $1.7 billion of investments in fixed maturities and equity securities and short-term investments were recorded under the fair value option and changes in fair value for these investments are recorded in the change in net unrealized gains/losses on fair value option investments in the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss). As of March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, $16.8 million and $17.2 million, respectively, of investments in equity securities were classified as available-for-sale and reported at fair value with unrealized gains and losses excluded from earnings and reported in a separate component of stockholders' equity, net of tax.

The cost or amortized cost and fair value of fixed maturity and equity securities and short-term investments at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015 were as follows:

At March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, investments with a fair value of $1.1 billion and $1.0 billion, respectively, were on deposit with regulatory authorities in compliance with insurance company regulations. At March 31, 2016, the Company had additional qualifying securities with a fair value of $144.1 million available for deposit.

Note 3. Derivative Contracts

Derivative contracts entered into by the Company are considered economic hedges and are not designated as accounting hedges. The Company invests in total return swap derivative contracts ("total return swaps") to protect the value of its equity and equity-linked investments against a major market downturn. The Company also invests in foreign exchange forward contracts ("foreign exchange forwards") and derivative contracts referenced to the consumer price index in the United States and Europe ("CPI-linked derivatives") to protect the value of its investment portfolio against foreign currency fluctuations as well as the risk of deflation. Derivatives are carried at fair value on the Consolidated Balance Sheets with changes in fair value recorded in the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss) as net gains/losses on derivatives. Cash settlements related to fair value changes on derivative contracts are also recorded in the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss) as net gains/losses on derivatives, and are recorded as an investing activity in the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

Derivative contracts in a gain position are presented as derivative assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Derivative contracts in a loss position are presented as derivative liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Securities pledged by counterparties as collateral for derivatives in a gain position are not recorded as assets of the Company. Securities pledged to counterparties by the Company as collateral for derivative contracts in a loss position, as well as contractually required independent collateral, are reflected in the Consolidated Balance Sheets as assets pledged for derivative obligations.

The following table summarizes the notional amount, cost and fair value of derivative contracts as of March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015:

(In thousands)	Notional Amount	Cost	Fair Value of Derivative Assets	Fair Value of Derivative Liabilities
March 31, 2016
CPI-linked derivatives	$ 7,913,053	$ 40,829	$ 19,385
Total return swaps	491,069			$ (56,774) (a)

Equity rights/warrants	921		261
Total		$ 40,829	$ 39,495	$ 1,436

(a) Represents the change in fair value since the most recent cash settlement date prior to the reporting date.

The gains (losses) from settlements and changes in fair value of the derivative contracts are recorded as net gains (losses) on derivatives in the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss) as follows:

(In thousands)	Three Months Ended March 31, 2016	2015
Gains (losses) on settlements
Total return swaps (a)	$ 64,713	$ (10,152)
Foreign exchange forwards	(3,013)	26,266
Total	61,700	16,114
Change in fair value (b)
Total return swaps	(72,302)	(5,755)
Foreign exchange forwards	(3,008)	(5,269)

Net gains (losses) on derivatives
Total return swaps	(7,589)	(15,907)
Foreign exchange forwards	(6,021)	20,997
CPI-linked derivatives	(3,416)	5,889
Equity rights/warrants	(77)	102
Total net gains (losses) on derivatives	$ (17,103)	$ 11,081

(a) Amounts for total return swaps include net gains (losses) where the Company and its counterparties are required to cash-settle on a quarterly basis the fair value movement since the previous quarterly reset date notwithstanding the total return swap positions remain open subsequent to the cash settlement.

(b) Change in fair value of total return swaps is measured from the contract inception or most recent cash settlement date prior to the reporting date. Change in fair value of CPI-linked derivatives and foreign exchange forwards include unrealized foreign exchange gains. Change in fair value of equity rights/warrants is measured from the contract inception date.

Total Return Swaps

The Company has protected its equity and equity-related holdings against a potential decline in equity markets by way of short positions effected through total return swaps in the Russell 2000 Index. The Company's economic equity hedges are structured to provide a return which is inverse to changes in the fair values of the Russell 2000 Index.

Total return swaps derive their value primarily from changes in fair value of the underlying equity index fund traded on an exchange. These swaps require no initial net cash investment and at inception the fair value is zero.

The Company's total return swaps contain quarterly reset provisions requiring counterparties to settle in cash any fair value movements arising subsequent to the prior settlement date. On the contractual settlement dates, the Company is also required to pay dividends declared on the underlying equity index and is entitled to receive from or is required to pay to the counterparty income on the notional amount at a stated interest rate. Interest earned is recorded as investment income while interest incurred and dividends declared are recorded as a reduction of such investment income in the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss). To the extent that a contractual reset date does not correspond to the balance sheet date, the Company adjusts the carrying value of the corresponding derivative asset or liability associated with each total return swap contract to reflect its fair value at the balance sheet date with the offset to net gains/losses on derivatives in the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss).

The following table summarizes the units, original notional amount and weighted average index value of the Company's open short position total return swaps on the Russell 2000 Index at initiation and the index value at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015:

(Units and original notional amounts in thousands)	Units		Original Notional Amount	Weighted Average Index Value	Index Value
March 31, 2016	4,952	$	582,271	118.57	110.63
December 31, 2015	3,835	$	473,448	123.53	112.62

During the three months ended both March 31, 2016 and 2015, the Company incurred $2.1 million of dividend and interest expense on its total return swaps, which was recorded as a reduction to investment income.

CPI-linked Derivatives

CPI-linked derivatives serve as an economic hedge against the potential adverse financial impact on the Company of decreasing consumer price levels (i.e., deflation). At March 31, 2016, these contracts had a remaining weighted average life of 6 years. The initial premium paid for each contract is recorded as a derivative asset and is subsequently adjusted for changes in the fair value of the contract at each balance sheet date with a corresponding offset to net gains (losses) on derivatives in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss). In the event of a sale, expiration or early settlement of any of these contracts, the Company will receive a cash settlement equal to the fair value of that contract on the date of the transaction. The Company's maximum potential loss on any contract is limited to the original cost of that contract.

The following table summarizes the notional amounts and underlying CPI Index price ("strike price") for the Company's CPI-linked derivatives at initiation and the index value at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015:

	Notional Amount
(Notional amount in thousands)	Original Currency		US Dollars	Weighted Average Strike Price In Original Currency		Index Value
Underlying CPI Index:
March 31, 2016
United States	5,520,000	$	5,520,000	232.81		238.13
European Union	2,100,000		2,393,053	97.29		100.07
		$	7,913,053
December 31, 2015
United States	5,520,000	$	5,520,000	232.81		236.53
European Union	2,100,000		2,281,220	97.29	(a)	100.16	(a)
		$	7,801,220

(a) During the first quarter of 2016, the CPI index value for the European Union was rebased with 2015 as the new reference year. The weighted average strike price at December 31, 2015 was rebased accordingly.

Foreign Exchange Forwards

The Company is currently exposed to currency rate fluctuations through its holding of foreign investments. Foreign exchange forwards denominated in Euros are used to manage certain foreign currency exposures arising from foreign currency denominated investments. These foreign exchange forwards require no initial net cash investment and at inception the fair value is zero. These contracts have a term to maturity of less than one year and may be renewed at market rates.

Counterparty Risk

The Company endeavors to limit counterparty risk through the terms of master netting agreements negotiated with the counterparties to its derivative contracts. Pursuant to these agreements, the counterparties to these transactions are contractually required to deposit eligible collateral in collateral accounts (subject to certain minimum thresholds) for the benefit of the Company depending on the then current fair value of the derivative contracts. Agreements negotiated with counterparties also provide for a single net settlement of all financial instruments covered by the agreement in the event of default by the counterparty, thereby permitting obligations owed by the Company to a counterparty to be offset to the extent of the aggregate amount receivable by the Company from that counterparty ("net settlement arrangements").

The following table sets out the Company's exposure to credit risk related to the counterparties to its derivative contracts:

(In thousands)		March 31, 2016		December 31, 2015
Total derivative assets (a)	$	19,385	$	39,234
Impact of net settlement arrangements		(19,385)
Fair value of collateral deposited for the benefit of the Company not recorded as assets of the Company (U.S. Treasury notes and bonds)				(25,978)
Excess of collateral pledged by the Company in favor of counterparties		336		2,120
Net derivative counterparty exposure after net settlement and collateral arrangements	$	336	$	15,376

(a) Excludes equity rights and warrants with a fair value of $185,000 and $261,000 at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015 respectively, which are not subject to counterparty risk.

The net derivative counterparty exposure after net settlement and collateral arrangements relates principally to the timing of collateral placement.

At March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the Company pledged to its counterparties securities with a fair value of $67.8 million and $25.9 million, respectively, as collateral for derivatives and recorded this amount as assets pledged for derivative obligations in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets as follows:

(In thousands)		March 31, 2016		December 31, 2015
Independent collateral for CPI-linked derivatives and equity index total return swaps	$	31,141	$	22,321
Mark-to-market collateral for total return swaps and foreign exchange forwards		36,655		3,555
Total assets pledged for derivatives	$	67,796	$	25,876

As of March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the counterparties pledged $2.1 million and $26.0 million, respectively, of securities at fair value for the Company's benefit. The Company does not record in its Consolidated Balance Sheets securities pledged by counterparties as collateral for derivatives in a gain position.

Offsetting of Derivative Assets/Liabilities

The Company entered into master netting agreements with certain of its derivative counterparties whereby the collateral provided (held) is calculated on a net basis. In accordance with GAAP, the Company elected not to offset derivative assets and liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets for the counterparties with the master netting agreement. The following table summarizes by counterparty (1) the gross and net amounts reflected as derivative assets (excluding equity rights and warrants) and liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets; (2) the gross amounts of the derivative instruments eligible for netting but not offset in the Consolidated Balance Sheets; and (3) financial collateral received and pledged which is contractually permitted to be offset upon an event of default, but is not allowed to be presented net under GAAP (net amount of exposure).

(In thousands)	Gross and net amounts reflected in the Consolidated Balance Sheets	Gross amounts not offset in the Consolidated Balance Sheets: Derivative asset (liability)	Gross amounts not offset in the Consolidated Balance Sheets: Collateral provided (held) - financial Instruments (b)	Net amount of exposure

Derivative liabilities:
Wells Fargo	$ (1,436)		$ 1,436
Total derivative liabilities	$ (1,436)		$ 1,436

(a) Excludes equity rights and warrants with a fair value of $185,000 and $261,000 at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, respectively, which are not subject to counterparty risk.

(b) Amounts of collateral pledged to the Company by the counterparties (collateral held) and pledged by the Company to the counterparties (collateral provided) reflected above are to the extent of the net counterparty exposure before the collateral.

(c) Represents foreign exchange forward contracts that are not subject to a master netting arrangement.

Note 4. Fair Value Measurements

The Company's fixed maturity securities, including short-term investments, equity securities, derivative contracts and other investments in cost-method partnerships are recorded at fair value in the accompanying Consolidated Balance Sheets. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or would be paid to transfer a liability (i.e., the "exit price") in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. In determining fair value, the Company primarily uses prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets ("market approach"). The Company also considers the impact of a significant decrease in volume and level of activity for an asset or liability when compared with normal activity to identify transactions that are not orderly.

Fair value measurements are determined under a three-level hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value, distinguishing between market participant assumptions developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the reporting entity ("observable inputs") and the reporting entity's own assumptions about market participant assumptions developed based on the best information available in the circumstances ("unobservable inputs"). The hierarchy level assigned to each security carried at fair value is based on the Company's assessment of the transparency and reliability of the inputs used in the valuation of each instrument at the measurement date. The highest priority is given to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). Securities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The Company recognizes transfers between levels at the end of each reporting period. The three hierarchy levels are defined as follows:

Level 1—Valuations based on unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical securities. The fair values of investments included in the Level 1 category were based on quoted prices that were readily and regularly available in an active market. The Level 1 category includes publicly traded equity securities, highly liquid cash management funds and short-term U.S. Government securities.

Level 2—Valuations based on observable inputs (other than Level 1 prices), such as quoted prices for similar assets at the measurement date; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable, such as benchmark yields; broker-dealer quotes; issuer spreads and bids. The fair values of securities included in the Level 2 category were based on publicly traded over-the-counter prices, broker-dealer quotes or industry accepted valuation models, which are sensitive to certain market observable assumptions, including share price volatility and credit spreads of the issuer.

Level 3—Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement and involve management judgment. Further qualitative and quantitative information on the Company's Level 3 securities is provided in the following pages.

The following table presents the Company's investments measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015 classified by the valuation hierarchy discussed previously:

Balance at March 31, 2015	$ 17,942	$ 17,262	$ 24,717	$ 27,501

(a) Change in unrealized gains (losses) for equity securities include change in fair value and foreign currency fluctuation.

The following table provides information on the valuation techniques, significant unobservable inputs and ranges for each major category of Level 3 assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis at March 31, 2016:

(In thousands)		Balance at March 31, 2016	Valuation Techniques	Significant Unobservable Inputs	Range
Corporate debt (a)	$	21,709	Market approach	Credit spread of issuer
Equity securities, available-for-sale (b)	$	16,727	Market approach	Estimated NAV multiple which incorporates estimated market value of underlying real estate holdings supported by appraisals	(b)
Cost-method partnerships (c)	$	21,773	NAV or Market approach	Investees' Financial Statements or fair value based on recent real estate appraisals
CPI-linked derivatives (d)	$	19,385	Market approach	Broker quotes

(a) The Level 3 corporate debt securities consist of two convertible bonds purchased in November 2013 and September 2015. The fair value of these bonds was determined using a Black-Scholes Model. Prices for identical instruments are not available and significant subjectivity may be involved when fair value is determined using pricing data available for comparable instruments.

(b) The Level 3 equity securities consist primarily of common stock of a company based in the United Kingdom with a fair value approximating its NAV because a significant portion of its NAV, excluding cash balances, is comprised of real estate holdings supported by appraisals. The estimated fair value of this equity security also includes foreign currency fluctuations and considers the value of an unrecognized tax loss carryforward.

(c) The Level 3 cost-method partnerships are primarily valued based on the Company's share of the NAV of the investee based on the most recent financial statements received, with the NAV generally reported at fair value in the investee's financial statements. Fair value of one cost-method partnership was estimated primarily based on the value of the real estate holdings supported by appraisals. These limited partnerships are classified as Level 3 because they may require at least three months of notice to liquidate.

(d) The Level 3 CPI-linked derivatives are valued using broker-dealer quotes which management has determined use market observable inputs except for the inflation volatility input which is not market observable.

Note 5. Related Party Transactions

Investments

Management of all of the Company's investments is centralized at Fairfax through investment management agreements entered into in 2010. The parties to these agreements are Zenith National's insurance subsidiaries, Fairfax and Hamblin Watsa Investment Counsel, Ltd. ("HWIC"), a Fairfax affiliate. Investment management expenses incurred under these agreements for the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015 were $1.3 million.

The Company owned a fixed maturity investment with a fair value of $8.9 million at December 31, 2014 that was issued by Fairfax and purchased in the ordinary course of business. Investment income from this fixed maturity investment was $0.2 million for the three months ended March 31, 2015. This investment matured on October 1, 2015 and the Company received $8.8 million of principal and interest in full settlement of the security.

The Company owns common shares in various classes of mutual funds, which are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Fairfax. At March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the aggregate fair value of these investments was $47.7 million and $97.5 million, respectively. Changes in fair value for these investments are recorded in the change in net unrealized gains/losses on fair value option investments in the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss). During the three months ended March 31, 2016, the Company recorded a net increase in unrealized gains/losses of $0.1 million, realized loss of $0.4 million and dividend income of $0.3 million on these investments. During the three months ended March 31, 2015, the Company recorded a net increase in unrealized gains/losses of $0.8 million.

The Company owns common stock in publicly-traded companies and invests in limited partnerships which are affiliates of Fairfax. These investments are recorded under the equity-method of accounting; see Note 2 for additional information related to equity-method investments. At March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the aggregate value of these investments recorded in the Consolidated Balance Sheets was $96.1 million and $55.2 million, respectively.

Other

The Company continues to be a party to various reinsurance treaties with affiliates of Fairfax that were entered into in the ordinary course of business, primarily consisting of a quota share reinsurance agreement with Odyssey Reinsurance Company ("Odyssey") in which the Company ceded 10% of its workers' compensation premiums written from January 1, 2002 through December 31, 2004. Odyssey also participates in the Company's excess of loss reinsurance agreements for 2010 through 2016. At March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, the Company recorded net reinsurance recoverables of $4.8 million and $5.3 million, respectively, related to these transactions.

Zenith National paid Fairfax approximately $0.1 million and $5.2 million, in the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively, for the cost of the open market purchase made by Fairfax on Zenith National's behalf of Fairfax Subordinate Voting Shares granted to certain officers under the Restricted Stock Plan.

In April 2015, Zenith National entered into an agreement with MFXchange US, Inc., an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Fairfax, to provide information technology services to Zenith National. The Company recorded expenses of $0.1 million in the three months ended March 31, 2016.

In November 2014, the Company entered into a Master Administrative Services Agreement with various affiliates of Fairfax. Under the agreement, the affiliated parties provide and receive administration services such as accounting, underwriting, claims, reinsurance, preparation of regulatory reports, and actuarial services. The Company did not have any transactions under this agreement in the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015.

In March 2013, the Company entered into an agreement with certain Fairfax affiliates to become their primary workers' compensation claims service provider. The Company recorded service fee income of $2.2 million and $2.1 million, in the three months ended March 31, 2016 and 2015, respectively, in the Consolidated Statements of Comprehensive Income (Loss) which is substantially offset by costs of dedicated staff and allocated shared services. Other liabilities at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015, include a loss fund of $1.3 million and $1.4 million, respectively, maintained by the Company to process future workers' compensation claim payments on behalf of Fairfax affiliates.

The insurance subsidiaries are subject to insurance regulations, which restrict their ability to distribute dividends. The maximum dividend which can be paid to Zenith National by Zenith Insurance without prior approval from the California Department of Insurance ("California DOI") during 2016 is $121.0 million. In March 2015, Zenith Insurance paid ordinary dividends of $10.0 million to Zenith National. In January 2016, Zenith

National paid a $55.0 million ordinary dividend to affiliates of Fairfax with the proceeds from the sale of its investment in common shares of a mutual fund which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fairfax.

The maximum dividend which can be paid to Zenith Insurance by ZNAT Insurance Company ("ZNAT"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Zenith Insurance, without prior approval of the California DOI during 2016 is $2.6 million.

Note 6. Reinsurance Recoverable

Amounts recoverable for paid and unpaid losses from reinsurers at March 31, 2016 and December 31, 2015 and their respective A.M. Best ratings were as follows:

(In thousands)		March 31, 2016 (a)		December 31, 2015 (a)	A.M. Best Rating (b)	A.M. Best Rating Date
General Reinsurance Corp.	$	59,245	$	59,114	A++	10/2015

All others (e)		9,427		10,556
Total	$	78,668	$	80,155

(a) Under insurance regulations in California, reinsurers placed securities on deposit equal to the California component of the Company's ceded workers' compensation loss reserves.

(b) A.M. Best, in assigning ratings, is primarily concerned with the ability of insurance and reinsurance companies to pay the claims of policyholders. In the A.M. Best ratings scheme, ratings of B+ to A++ are considered "Secure" and ratings of B and below are considered "Vulnerable." NR means A.M. Best does not rate the reinsurer.

(c) Reinsurance recoverable from the Inter-Ocean Re Ins Co. Ltd. is fully secured by an investment grade security held in a bank trust account on the Company's behalf.

(d) Odyssey Reinsurance Company ("Odyssey") is an affiliate of Fairfax, see Note 5.

(e) No individual reinsurer in excess of $0.9 million at March 31, 2016.

Note 7. Other Comprehensive Loss

Other comprehensive loss is comprised of changes in unrealized gains (losses) on investments classified as available-for-sale, other investments in cost-method partnerships, and foreign currency translation adjustments. The following table summarizes the components of the Company's other comprehensive loss:

(In thousands)		Pre-Tax		Income Tax Effect		After-Tax
Three months ended March 31, 2016
Net unrealized losses arising during the period	$	(1,086)	$	(380)	$	(706)

Note 9. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company is involved in various litigation proceedings that arise in the ordinary course of business. Disputes adjudicated in the workers' compensation administrative systems may be appealed to review boards or civil courts, depending on the issues and local jurisdictions involved. From time to time, plaintiffs also sue the Company on theories falling outside of the exclusive jurisdiction and remedies of the workers' compensation claims adjudication systems. Certain of these legal proceedings seek injunctive relief or substantial monetary damages, including claims for punitive damages, which may not be covered by reinsurance agreements. Historically, the Company has not experienced any material exposure or damages from any of these legal proceedings. In addition, in the opinion of management, after consultation with legal counsel, currently outstanding litigation is either without merit or the ultimate liability, if any, is not expected to have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial condition, results of operations or cash flows.

Note 10. Recent Accounting Guidance Not Yet Adopted

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued new guidance on how an entity should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This guidance does not apply to contracts within the scope of other standards (for example, insurance contracts or lease contracts). In August 2015, the FASB deferred the effective date of this new guidance by one year. This guidance is now effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019. The guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

In May 2015, the FASB issued guidance on disclosures for investments in certain entities that calculate NAV per share or its equivalent. Under this amendment, investments for which fair value is measured at NAV using the practical expedient should not be categorized in the fair value hierarchy. The guidance is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2016. Early adoption is permitted. The guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In May 2015, the FASB issued new guidance which requires insurance entities to provide additional disclosures related to claims liabilities related to short-duration contracts. The additional disclosure requirements include: (1) the claims development information by accident year, net of reinsurance, for the number of years for which claims incurred remain outstanding but not to exceed the most recent 10 years; (2) a reconciliation of claims development information and the aggregate carrying amount of the liability for unpaid claims and claim adjustment expenses; and (3) information about the claims frequency and the amount of the incurred-but-not-reported liabilities for each accident year presented. In addition, a description of the methodologies and assumptions used to determine the amounts disclosed and significant changes in methodologies and assumptions are required. The roll forward of the liability for unpaid claims and claims adjustment expenses, currently required only for annual periods, will also be required for interim periods. The guidance will be effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2016 and interim periods thereafter. This guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In January 2016, the FASB issued updated guidance to address the recognition, measurement, presentation, and disclosure of certain financial instruments. The updated guidance requires equity investments, except those accounted for under the equity method of accounting, that have readily determinable fair value to be measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in net income. Equity investments that do not have readily determinable fair values may be remeasured at fair value either upon the occurrence of an observable price change or upon identification of impairment. A qualitative assessment for impairment is required for equity investments without readily determinable fair values. The updated guidance also eliminates the requirement to disclose the method and significant assumptions used to estimate the fair value of financial instruments measured at amortized cost on the balance sheet. The updated guidance is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2019 and will require recognition of a cumulative effect adjustment at adoption. The Company does not currently expect the adoption of this guidance to impact its financial position or cash flows.

In February 2016, the FASB issued updated guidance to require lessees to recognize a right-to-use asset and a lease liability for leases with terms of more than 12 months. The updated guidance retains the two classifications of a lease as either an operating or finance lease (previously referred to as a capital lease). Both lease classifications require the lessee to record the right-to-use asset and the lease liability based upon the present value of cash flows. Finance leases will reflect the financial arrangement by recognizing interest expense on the lease liability separately from the amortization expense of the right-to-use asset. Operating leases will recognize lease expense (with no separate recognition of interest expense) on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. The accounting by lessors is not significantly changed by the updated guidance. The updated guidance requires expanded qualitative and quantitative disclosures, including additional information about the amounts recorded in the financial statements. The updated guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2019 and interim periods thereafter, and will require that the earliest comparative period presented include the measurement and recognition of existing leases with an adjustment to equity as if the updated guidance had always been applied. Early adoption is permitted. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operation or cash flows.

In March 2016, the FASB issued updated guidance to simplify and improve several aspects of accounting for share-based payment transactions, including the income tax consequences, classification of awards as either equity or liability, and classification on the statement of cash flows. Additionally, the updated guidance allows an entity to make an entity-wide accounting policy election to either estimate the number of awards that are expected to vest or recognize forfeitures of awards when they occur. The updated guidance is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2017 and interim periods thereafter. Early adoption is permitted. The adoption of this guidance is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operation or cash flows.
